STOPPED HIS PAPER.—Nowadays when a subscriber gets so mad because an edior differs with him on some trivial question that he discontinues his paper, we remind him of streets. a good anecdote of the late Horace Greeley, the well known editor of the New York Building. Tribune. Passing down Newspaper row in New York city one morning, he met one of his readers, who exclaimed:

"Mr. Greeley, after the article you published this morning, I intend to stop your paper."
"Oh, no," said Mr. Greeley, "don't do that.

"Yes, sir, my mind is made up. I shall stop the paper.' But the angry subscriber was not to be appeased, and they separated. Late in the afternoon the two met again, when Mr. Greeley remarked: "Mr. Thompson, I am very glad you did not carry out your threat this morning,"

"What do you mean?" "Why, you said you were going to stop my paper."

"And so I did. I went to the office and had my paper stopped."

You are surely mistaken; I have just come from there and the press was running and business was booming.

"Sir," said Thompson, very pompously, "I meant I intended to stop my subscription to your paper.

"Oh! thunder!" rejoined Greeley; "I thought you were going to stop the running of my paper, and keep me out of a living. My friend, let me tell you something: One man is just one drop of water in the ocean. You didn't set the problems. didn't set the machinery of this world in motion, and you can't stop it: and when you are underneath the ground things upon the surface will wag on.
